

Stars of the Week

12th June 2020

Miss Hearld's Class

- ★ Elsie Jefferson for working really hard on her home learning activities and doing some fantastic super hero writing this week.
- ★ James Scott for making a brilliant junk model rocket and giving a really clear explanation about how each part worked.

Miss Scott's Class

- ★ George Frost for writing a fantastic sentence about his spanner
- ★ Harvey Smith for creating a fantastic superhero with lots of gadgets

Miss Whittome's Class

- ★ Bobby Shaw for trying really hard to do some amazing writing in school - he has been really proud of himself.
- ★ Betsy Bevan for amazing learning around our topic of World ocean week this week.

Miss Burbidge & Mrs Caul's Class

- ★ Jack Stoner who has been working SO hard with all his maths, and is now showing a fab understanding of subtraction. We are just so proud of him!
- ★ Isadora Havercroft-Watt for an amazing performance of a poem that she learnt off by heart, and top effort in all her home learning that she has done. She has been a complete star!

Mrs Boulton's Class

- ★ Ruby Mae Finn for her family morning based on Charlie and the Chocolate Factory- chocolate melting, tasting and factory tours!
- ★ Bailey Stone for his fantastic homemade musical instruments. He played these as he sang a song
- ★ Luke Anning for making an amazing model of the Chocolate Factory including a working glass elevator

Miss Humphreys' Class

- ★ Lily Parkinson for her brilliant sentences to describe Willy Wonka's chocolate factory using fantastic adjectives.
- ★ Anya Brown for fantastic maths work on the two times table. She even extended herself and completed the work for the 5 times table.

Miss Wilkinson's Class

- ★ Brooke Farrell who makes an amazing effort with every piece of home learning given to her. Clearly working very hard at home and producing work to the best of her ability.
- ★ Will Mingo for choosing some excellent vocabulary to use in his diary entry. His plan was great and I can't wait to read the finished product.

Stars of the Week

12th June 2020

Mr Dyer's Class

- ★ Abbey-Rose Robertson for huge dedication and enthusiasm with home learning, working really hard each day and clearly making great progress.
- ★ Taryn Massam for working really hard on her maths home learning. Every task shows determination and dedication.

Miss Pope's Class

- ★ Edward Brewer because he persevered with poetry and wrote a fantastic acrostic poem that sums up all of the wonderful things about summer perfectly. Not only that, but it was written in colourful, cursive handwriting!
- ★ Alice Merritt for her super maths work and a great perimeter challenge for her classmates!

Miss Seavers' Class

- ★ Poppy Simpson for an excellent summer chalk drawing, using the new skills she has learnt.
- ★ Lucy Stimson wrote some fantastic metaphors about summer, capturing the season perfectly

Miss Gardonyi's Class

- ★ Olivia Mckay has been working incredibly hard on every piece of home learning, but in particular she has produced a gorgeous L.S. Lowry style artwork.
- ★ Leo Deighton for incredible attitude towards his home learning but in particular his potion for 'annoying sisters'!
- ★ Bobbie Taylor has showed consistent hard work all week and wonderfully supportive comments on other children's work.
- ★ Alex Briggs for having the fantastic idea of writing a joint story with his friend (Edward Hardy) to create something very special.

Miss Le Pla's Class

- ★ Alfred Davies for an excellent piece of art using 1 point perspective drawn on the iPad.
- ★ Ava Gane for an informative and well-explained set of of instructions on how to catch a ball.

Mrs Hutchinson's Class

- ★ Charlie Hallam for working hard over the past few weeks and producing some great writing including instructions about how to complete a defensive cricket shot.
- ★ Jamie Stone for an excellent piece of art using 1 point perspective and paints with shading to create a super picture.

Miss Padbury's Class

- ★ George Redpath for working hard with home learning and for completing his list of spellings.
- ★ Ben Wells for lots of fantastic home learning, but especially his writing.